

This is a step-wise explanation on how to renew your membership

1. Go to the website of EARA and log in on the right upper corner, or if you are already logged in you can immediately go to the membership area (<https://www.earaonline.org/members/>)
2. Click on renew membership
3. Update your membership information (important for receiving the journal), and choose the preferred membership and payment method, pay-pal or credit card. Then click on the link in the right corner at the bottom (renew membership>>)
4. This will lead you automatically to a pay-pal pop-up frame that will allow you to pay the fee by pay-pal or by credit card. If this doesn't occur, pop-ups may be blocked by your browser.

This is a step-wise explanation on how become an EARA member.

1. Go to the website of EARA (EARAonline.org) and log in on the right upper corner: Become a member.
2. Through following the link provided in the text box 'Apply online', you can register
3. Provide your name and email address
4. You will receive the password in your mail box. If you don't receive it, please check your spam folder
5. Through following the link provided in the text box 'Create an Account', you can log in on the website
6. Go to the membership area in the right upper corner of the website or through the following link <https://www.earaonline.org/members/>
7. Click on apply for membership
8. Fill in your membership information (important for receiving the journal!) and choose the preferred membership and payment method, pay-pal or credit card. Then click on the link in the right corner at the bottom (Submit>>)
9. Click on return to Members Area
10. Click on Edit/Revise application
11. This will lead you automatically to a pay-pal pop-up frame that will allow you to pay the fee by pay-pal or by credit card. If this doesn't occur, pop-ups may be blocked by your browser.

Paying through the online system has our strong preference because it can be more quickly processed. However, there is also a possibility to transfer the fee to the EARA bank account.
